

WORKSHOP C

Sunday, May 18, 2014
1:30 PM - 5:00 PM

Room: 18CD
0.3CEUs

1:30 PM      Biosolids Happens – Dissecting 2 Case Studies and Applying a Social Science Lens

- Free Compost or Toxic Sludge? A Case Study from San Francisco, California
Natalie Sierra, RMC Environment, Belmont, MA
- Austin's Compost Fires – How Proactive Communications Helped During a Crisis
Jody Slagle, Austin Water Utility
- Break-out groups

2:40 PM      Working With the Media – An Ongoing Case Study from North Texas

- Odor Issues, Public Upset, State regulatory review, New regulations
Ben Davis, Renda Environmental, Ft. Worth, TX
- My Experience Reporting on Biosolids
JoAnn Livingston, freelance journalist, Waxahachie, TX
- Break-out groups, one for each case study

3:30 PM      Networking Break

4:00 PM      Reporting out from break-out groups

4:20 PM      Working With the Media
Tyrone Jue, San Francisco Public Utilities Commission

4:50 PM      Summary
Ned Beecher, NEBRA, Tamworth, NH

5:00 PM      Adjourn