EAC MUST ABIDE BY ALL THE RULES AND REGULATIONS AS THEY PERTAIN TO EXHIBITORS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE COLLECTION SYSTEMS 2011 EXHIBITOR SERVICE MANUAL

EAC Rules and Regulations

1. Definitions:

- a. The term "Event" refers to Residuals and Biosolids 2012 located in Raleigh, North Carolina on June 13-14, 2011.
- b. The term "exhibit halls" refers to the following physical show location where this Event is being held: Raleigh Convention Center.

2. The EAC acknowledges that they have read and agree to abide by all rules and regulations regarding the operation of this event including the exhibitor service manual.

3. The EAC agrees:

- a. To remove all gang boxes, ladders, or other equipment from the aisle or other common areas by the close of work hours each night. The EAC is permitted to store equipment in the exhibitor's booth only.
- b. Not to operate a service desk of any type within the exhibit hall.
- c. To abide by the fire and safety regulations, all other prevailing regulations of governmental agencies and the exhibit hall.
- d. To abide by the rules and regulations of the Event as set forth or amended by WEF.

4. The EAC affirms that they have confirmed work orders from all exhibitors listed above, and that they will not in any manner solicit work from other exhibitors or booths in this show under any circumstances. The EAC must confine its operations to the exhibit area of its clients. No service desk, storage areas or other work facilities shall be located within the exhibit facilities contracted by WEF. Show aisles and public space are not considered part of the booth area. The EAC may not, under any circumstances, solicit business on the show floor.

5. The EAC further agrees that WEF may expel them from the premises at any time should they be found to be working in any exhibitor's booth not listed above unless authorized in advance by WEF.

6. Insurance: The EAC agrees to carry personal injury, property damage liability, and worker's compensation insurance, and agrees to provide WEF with an original valid insurance by February 24, 2012, maintained in a financially sound insurance company admitted and licensed to provide insurance in the state where the EAC is domiciled for the following minimum coverage:

- a. Worker's compensation, employee, and employer's liability coverage in full compliance with all laws covering EAC's employees and all temporary labor hired to perform work on this event.
- b. Comprehensive general liability insurance against claims for single limit bodily injury or death and property damage coverage, contractual liability coverage, products liability coverage and with completed operations coverage in the amount of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) for each occurrence.
- c. The Water Environment Federation (WEF) and the City of Raleigh as additional insured on all policies of insurance coverage.
- d. Comprehensive automotive liability coverage, including hired and non-owned auto of not less than Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) each occurrence.

e. Thirty (30) days prior written notice of cancellation and proof of replacement coverage meeting the same conditions expressed above. Any other coverage as may be required by WEF from time to time shall be obtained on demand.

7. Hold Harmless:

a. The EAC agrees to indemnify and hold harmless WEF and the Corporation, Raleigh Convention Center, and their respective members, officers, directors, agents and employees from any and all liability, claims, losses, liabilities, and expenses, including without limitation, reasonable legal, accounting, consulting, engineering, and other expenses, which may be imposed upon or incurred by WEF, or asserted against WEF, its successors or assigns, by any other party or parties (including, without limitation, a governmental entity), in any way arising out of or in connection with EAC's occupancy or use of the exhibit hall and with regard to an act, omission, negligence or misconduct on the part of the EAC or any of its agents, servants, employees, contractors, patrons, guests, licensees or invitees or any other person entering upon the exhibit hall leased hereunder with the express or implied invitation or permission of EAC.

8. The EAC agrees that they will work in the hall only between the hours specified by WEF and will abide by all badging rules established by WEF.

9. The EAC agrees to abide by all existing union contracts, regardless of dispute from a prior work engagement. Any dispute causing injury of any kind to WEF, its agents, contractors, exhibitors or attendees will be the full responsibility of the EAC including, but not limited to, all consequential damages arising out of such a dispute.

10. WEF has no responsibility whatsoever for any property at the event or any financial obligation of the EAC under any circumstances.

11. Any disputes arising out of this Agreement will be judged under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

12. The EAC will refrain from placing an undue burden on the exhibition service contractor, Freeman, by interfering in any way with their work.

13. The EAC agrees to pay all reasonable costs incurred by the exhibition service contractor in connection with the EAC's operation that would not have been incurred otherwise.

14. The EAC will cooperate fully with the exhibition service contractor and will comply with existing labor regulations or contracts as determined by the commitment made and obligations assumed by WEF in any contracts with its official contractors.

15. All EAC's and their labor must be badged through Show Management. NO ONE WILL BE ALLOWED ON THE SHOW FLOOR WITHOUT PROPER IDENTIFICATION.

The EAC agrees that failure to abide by any and all rules stated above or created by Show Management prior to or during the Event is cause for expulsion from the exhibit hall, and that Show Management has final authority over all such matters. EAC also agrees to convey these rules and regulations to all staff working on the Residuals and Biosolids 2012 show floor.

This Agreement represents the entire agreement and each party acknowledges receipt of a copy of this Agreement. The EAC is responsible for obtaining a copy of the Residuals and Biosolids 2012 Exhibitor Service Manual from the Exhibitor.
