WEF Exhibitor Membership Benefits

Access to Manufacturers' Representatives

WEF's Exhibitor Members are entitled to receive an electronic list of WEF members designated as Manufacturers' Representatives annually. This list allows you to connect directly with Manufacturers' Representatives to provide more information about your products and services.

Earn Recognition for Your Technology

Awards are presented each year to Exhibitor Members who have introduced innovative products or services related to the construction, operation, or maintenance of water resource recovery facilities. The winners receive recognition at WEFTEC. Exhibitor Members are encouraged to submit entries by April 1, 2023. For more details, visit www.wef.org/innovativetechaward.

Earn Priority Points Toward Preferred Space

Exhibitor Members receive one Priority Point per year for Exhibitor Membership. These points are added to priority points earned by exhibiting at WEFTEC, Specialty Conferences, and WIN Pavilion shows.

Booth Space Discounts

WEF's Specialty Conferences are your best source for reaching qualified buyers interested in your business. These diverse conferences attract nearly 3,000 water quality professionals annually by providing the opportunity to delve into groundbreaking topics in great depth.
